

Widget used:

Column widget: it is used to align children vertically in flutter.

Container widget: it can be used to store or contain all other widget like color,padding,alignment,child.

stateful widget: stateful widget track its internal state.

Stateless widget: stateless widget doesn't care about what data its displaying.

Padding widget: it is used to decorate a container.

Button: It is used to trigger a event when pressed by a user.

Builder: A function used to build a widget into a widget.

Alignment: used to align the child as per the user need.

Expanded: It is used to make child widget take all the space in row or column.

GridView: it is used to show the assigned item in a tabular form.

Gesturedetector: it is used to detect the users gesture targeted on a widget.

SetState: it is sued inside stateful widget for changing the state of a stateful widget.